SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Weekly News Bulletin

Vol. 1, No. 1

September 14, 1973

The Public Relations office will publish each Friday the Salve Regina College Weekly News Bulletin. The Weekly News Bulletin will be distributed in Miley Hall and O'Hare Academic Center and mailed to a list of news media and other individuals who need to know in detail the activities taking place on campus.

In order to make the Weekly News Bulletin as useful as possible the Public Relations office will have to depend on the cooperation of students, faculty and staff to submit information in a timely manner. The deadline for getting material in to the Public Relations office is four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The final editing of the Weekly News Bulletin, typing and reproduction will be accomplished on Thursday.

In general, the Weekly News Bulletin will publish information about past events covering the ten days prior to the Wednesday deadline and notices of events from the Friday of publication to the next following week end. Thus, the next issue will be published on September 21, 1973. This will cover the period of September 9th to September 30th.

If you know anyone who should be placed on the mailing list, call or visit the Public Relations office and let us know.

Within the next few days the Public Relations office will move to the Breakfast Room in Ochre Court next to the Financial Aid office. The telephone numbers will remain 45 and 43. There will be a full-time secretary in the office from 9 to 4 each day. In addition, Mr. Robert J. McKenna, Director of College and Community Relations, will be in the office most days. Mr. Robert Newbert who is our contact man from our public relations consultants, Creamer, Trowbridge, Case & Basford, Inc., will also be in the office one or two days each week.

Anyone wishing to volunteer to help on a part-time basis in the Public Relations office should contact Mr. McKenna at extension 45, 43, or 81.

Salve Regina Fine Arts Series Presents the Brink-Pinkham Duo

On Saturday evening, September 15, at 6:00 p.m. the Salve Regina Fine Arts Series in conjunction with the Boston Philharmonia Orchestra, will present the Brink-Pinkham Duo, with violinist Robert Brink and harpsichordist David Pinkham and guest Judith Davidoff, viola de gamba. The concert will be in the Great Hall at Ochre Court.

The concert is open to the public with an admission charge of $3.00. Special rates for Salve Regina students have been established. Students may purchase tickets at the College Bookstore, Room 106 O'Hare Academic Center, for $1.50 and at the door of the hall for $2.00 on the night of the concert.

Alumnae Reception for Sister Lucille McKillop

On Saturday, September 8th, the Alumnae Association held a reception for Salve Regina College's new president, Sister Lucille McKillop, R.S.M. Miss Mary Connolly, president of the Alumnae Association, introduced Sister Lucille to the seventy-four members of the Alumnae who attended the reception and luncheon. Alumnae from Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts and New York attended. Among those attending were the Student Congress president of the last three years, Carolyn Reder '71, Diane Taylor '72 and Vicky Almeida '73. There was a general discussion of ways that the Alumnae can be better informed as to what is happening at Salve Regina and how they can assist the College and continue a close relationship with it.

Athletic Equipment Available

Dr. Ascanio DiPippo has announced that the Security office in Miley Hall now has a supply of athletic equipment for basketball, volleyball, softball and football.

Schedules for the softball and volleyball programs will be posted on the bulletin boards as soon as they are set.

Dr. DiPippo and the Chem Gems

Dr. Ascanio DiPippo has announced that anyone wishing to play a musical instrument is welcome to join the Chem Gems. Interested persons should contact Arlene Sakovich, Mary Jo Gabriel or Dr. DiPippo.
